

Access information template

Company
Show title
Suitability	Please select one that best reflects your production If other, or if your show appeals to any other specific access groups via form or content, please explain A strong visual theme - suitable for the hearing impaired A 'story telling' descriptive script - suitable for the visually impaired Confident mix of both - suitable for the hearing or visually impaired
Notes for deaf and hearing impaired audiences	Please describe the full story line in less than 200 words What music/soundscape is used in the production and why? Are any accents used by actors? Are there any important sound effects to note? Describe any other elements of the sound of the show that you feel are important to understanding the production.
Notes for blind and visually impaired audiences	Please describe the set of your production including texture, colour and lighting and stage effects with general staging information in less than 200 words. If there are any major scene changes, please describe the various settings. Describe the visual aspects of characters, how they are generally dressed and the image they are aiming to get across. Please describe any further visual aspects you feel are important to understanding the production.
Access resources	Please list resources you will offer to complement your production. If you will not be able to offer the recommended resources, please explain. Recommended: Pre-show touch tours of the set if requested Script text in file format Audio recordings of the flyer, programme and notes for the visually impaired Production shots of the cast and set Additional: Large text programmes and flyers Relaxed performances A Visual Story Integrated BSL signing 'Access table' to place in venue foyers, to include above resources as well as fabric swatches, elements of costume/set, model box etc as appropriate