

Green Links & Resources

The definitive guide: Green Mobility Guide

A guide for all participants in touring practice including artists, touring companies, technical teams, and venues and platforms hosting work. It includes top tips for all of these different roles in the touring process, as well as case studies and "hot topics" that shed light on more complex environmental issues.

www.juliesbicycle.com/resources/green-guides/green-mobility-guide

Top Tips for touring companies

A starting point for touring companies on how to green all aspects of their office, touring activity, and improve communications with host venues, festivals and other performance locations on environmental commitments.

www.juliesbicycle.com/theatre/tours www.juliesbicycle.com/resources/practical-guides/touring www.juliesbicycle.com

Top Tips for venues and festivals

Venues and festivals hosting and/or coproducing work with touring companies can find top tips to green their buildings, sites and operational activities here:

www.juliesbicycle.com/theatre

www.juliesbicycle.com/resources/practical-guides/green-my-building

www.juliesbicycle.com/resources/practical-guides

Green Rider for Theatre

A template document for touring companies to adapt and use to communicate their environmental commitments and expectations to host venues and sites. Please email sholeh@juliesbicycle.com to request a copy of the Green Rider.

Venue and festival statement

A template document designed to assist venues and festivals communicate their environmental commitments and local resources to incoming touring companies and co-producers. Please email sholeh@juliesbicycle.com to request a copy of the template.

Green Suppliers Database

A listing of sustainable products and services offered to creative organisations in the UK.

www.juliesbicycle.com/resources/jb-green-database/suppliers

Kindly provided by